About This Software

DatavizVR is the first virtual reality data visualization software designed for the next generation of big data analytics. Welcome to the future!

How The Demo Works:

1) Plot

Easily assign variables to any axes or other marks such as size, shape, color and more! The data plots instantly. Dynamic data plotting shows changes in real-time.

2) Manipulate

Filter, sort, cluster and categorize your data. Rotate, scale, stack or combine your data plots.

3) Analyze

Spot new trends, gain insight and make new discoveries unavailable in traditional 2D data software. Make better decisions in less time.

DatavizVR is more powerful, intuitive and efficient than any other data visualization platform.

If you would like to load your own datasets and gain access to our enterprise features, please apply for the closed beta!

This really is a fun game !!! Just opened all the Umbrellas (NICE SHADES) achievement !. Fairly good game. Wish it had a better movement system tho. While the left mouse button to fire the weapon was good and the space bar for the special was good, and using the mouse to aim was meh, the right click to accelerate sucked.

Needs an option to use keyboard instead of mouse, for instance traditional ASDW keys would've been ideal with WS being thrust and brake respectively.

Paid $2.99 for it.. Devs keeps censoring me then pretends to care about the community

Well, see for yourself : more ugly overpriced trailers for a price.. They made this game fun and easy to play. First I have to mention that the online portion of this game is pretty much dead, probably because of the grindy nature of the game.

however, i have enjoyed my brief time with this game so far, the opening cinematic was rough in all the right ways, the tutorial was meh, but then i got into regular play and unlocked a fedora asap... hell yeah!

I have only played solo so far, kind of like the simple build mechanics, so other reviews said it is a bad thing... I think it comes down to preference. Going to try endless mode next.

the gameplay is repetitive, but with friends or family, i could see this being a heck ton of fun. the price is pretty steep at 13.99, maybe wait for a sale to grab multiple copies, look for it bundled like how i got it, or wait till it goes F2P (no guarantee that will happen)

I was going to rate this

8/10 with friends

5/10 solo

But i'll give them extra points for not having micro-transactions at all, breathe of fresh air!. Similar to the first one, this game will scare the living out of you. A little bit of pixel hunting should not scare you away, just check every location thoroughly. If you like games that resemble the blare witch project, play this for sure!. life-enriching. Has lots of bugs but has a really nice story and some of the bugs are really funny xD I wouldnt say get the game just yet but it will become a good game! Also it needs multiplayer.. I also livestreamed the game and when updates come out I will also livestream it check it out!

<https://www.twitch.tv/Yuppy1217>. Paranoia ist die richtige Umschreibung für dieses Spiel. Durch das ausgezeichnete Lighting, vielfältige Geräusche und realistische Umgebung wird man wortwörtlich an dieses Spiel gefesselt. Besonders finde ich die Interaktion mit den vielen Objekten eine coole Feature. Ebenso ist die Ungewissheit was einen im nächsten Raum erwarten könnte ein perfekter Adrenalinkick, da der Spieler selbst durch die Räume navigieren muss. Die Länge war total in Ordnung und cool dass es zwei verschiedene Endings gibt. Fazit: Eine sehr aufregende und geile VR Experience! Freue mich auf weitere Kapitel.

As a lover of the Nancy Drew games, I did enjoy this game, however there were some issues. Some of the puzzles just straight up made no sense and I would end up solving them on accident by getting angry and just messing with them without thought or logic.

I always enjoy when these games take you out of first person view, so I enjoyed the outside travel, though a whole area I thought was off limits proved not to be, and really screwed up my gameplay because a ton of stuff was there that I needed, but it seemed like an off limits, "nothing there" sort of area.

There was a good variety of puzzles as usual, but as others have said, some of them just aren't very clear or are too sensitive, such as the drink mixing and the elements one. I'd still recommend this game for lovers of the series. This isn't the only ND game to be frustrating. :P. I never get sick of this game. You can get in, get out and have a full game in no time. I just wish multiplayer support was better. Never been able to play against a person, yet.

I have experienced some crashes and lock ups with the game, but that may just be my laptop.

This game represents excellent value for money and makes a great gift.. Buys Game*

*Starts Game, and finishes screaming at all of the graphics*

*Tries To talk to somepony*

*They get mad at a compliment and reacts to nothing else*

*Tries To get a job*

*Cant work because they are HUNGRY*

would never buy this again....FOR ANYONE. It's fun and I got it while it was on sale :) Very much worth it.. Intresting take on classism. Played quite a bit more then the 2 hours offline.. This is one of the best dungeon crawler games I've played in a long, long, time, and the exploration, town mangement, and party management bits are just icing on the cake. I have to say that one of my favorite little details is the ability, when in a dungeon, to look at your map. see where you haven't been, and travel there automatically. That may not sound like such a big deal until you realize just how annoying it is in other games to backtrack your way through explored areas to get to unexplored areas. I've got "a few" procedurally generataed dungeon crawler games in my library, and so far, this is hands down my favorite; it has that "magic" that got me addicted to games like Nethack and Moria decades ago. Enthusasitcally recommended for fans of the genre.. As said before, the store description makes no sense. Read The Virgin Queen's "New Description" post instead.

But this is a great little puzzle game, once you figure out what you're supposed to be doing.

Go into the yellow entrances, push and/or kick the various blocks around to collect the star and press the red button to get back out the portal doorway.

Once completed the doorway will turn green. Red doorways are locked.

Great game, nice graphics, very addictive. Enjoy!. I think price is a little bet over exaggerated. I liked graphics, but enemy ships are really tiny. With 90% discount, for 10 cents, it would be a nic way to kill 30-40 min, but for euro, I don't think this is a good choice.

But still gameplay feels god.
