Glossary of Banking Terms and Definitions: Banking Terms that Begin With A

Banking Terms	Banking Definitions	Banking Terms Glossary: Notes and References
AAA	AAA is a term or a grade that is used to rate a particular bond. It is the highest rated bond that gives maximum returns at the time of maturity. Usually the grade AAA is given to the best debt obligation or a security, by a credit rating agency.
Acceleration	Acceleration is the process, where the lender demands a full and final payment of the debt or loan, before the allotted time period for repayment. A clause in the document of the debt usually empowers the lender to accelerate the time period.
Accelerated Depreciation	A method of depreciation of fixed assets, where the early deductions are greater in monetary terms and later ones are smaller.
Acceptance	Acceptance which is also known as the banker's acceptance is a signed instrument of acknowledgment that indicates the approval and acceptance of all terms and conditions of any agreement on behalf of the banker. It is a very wide term that is used in context with financial agreements and contracts.
Account	An account is a record of all financial transactions that are related to an asset, individual, transaction or any organization. It is a major term in the field of accountancy and is conventionally denoted by the A/c. It can also be defined as a transaction between a buyer and a seller about payments and dues which develop creditor-debtor relations.
Account Balance	The total amount of money in a particular bank account, along with the debit and credit amounts, the net amount is also termed as the account balance.
Account Reconciliation	Account reconciliation is a process with the help of which the account balance can be easily verified. Account reconciliation is usually done at the end of a week, month, financial year or at the end of any	To know more on account reconciliation read: Steps to Account Reconciliation and Purpose of Bank
